THE... PANAMA CANAL

How Uncle Sam Is Tackling the World's Most Gigantic Engineering Feat.

Ten Thousand Men Digging Through a Mountain Range on the Isthmus to Connect Two Mighty Oceans. Largest Force at Work on the Culebra Cut.

From the Atlantic to the Pacific the Canal Will Be Fifty Miles Long and at Least Forty Feet Deep—Many Dams to Be Built and a River's Course May Be Changed.

Sanitary Conditions Being Successfully Mastered—Towns and Cities Properly Sewered. Pure Water Brought From the Mountains—Employees Well Housed and Fed—Suitable Hospitals and Medical Attendance Provided.

By J. A. EDGERTON

THE United States government is doing many big things these days—maintaining the integrity of China, keeping the "open door" in the Orient, protecting the smaller republics of the whole western hemisphere and acting as a mediator in securing peace in the far east. But withal she is doing nothing larger than the attempt to connect the Atlantic and Pacific oceans by a waterway through the isthmus of Panama. This is admitted to be the most gigantic engineering feat ever undertaken by man. Longer canals have been made. The Suez ditch, for example. But none of them has presented the difficulties that are encountered at Panama. Digging through a mountain range is a new proposition. De Lesseps was successful in making the Suez waterway. Yet he fell down on Panama. It remains for Uncle Sam to do what France failed to do. Will he succeed? Who, knowing his history and spirit, can doubt it? If faith, grit and determination can overcome the passive resistance of nature he will overcome. He has conquered a continent, won in five wars and for the first time in history has made representative government a shining success. What is the mere constructing of a canal fifty miles long to compare with these larger accomplishments? Of course he will win. The American people are a unit on this undertaking, and when the American people unite opposition might as well get out of the way. This is not boasting; it is simply the will and the consciousness of ability to perform. The Panama canal will be built. The nation is pledged to reach that goal. It has set its hand to the task, and every American should have too much pride in his country to see it fail.

World's Great Highway.

Almost since the discovery of the new world men have dreamed of uniting the two oceans. The scheme was definitely broached in the early part of the sixteenth century. Now, in the beginning of the twentieth, the thing is to be done. A problem large enough to engross the attention of men for 400 years is large enough for a great nation to undertake. A result that will beneficially affect the commerce of the entire earth is sufficiently important that no possible effort should be neglected for its accomplishment. Prophetic minds have foreseen that some day, and no very distant day at that, the greatest civilization the world has known is to fringe the shores of the Pacific. That ocean, rather than the Atlantic, is to be the world's great highway. The Panama canal will be the gate to the Pacific, and with its completion it will open the door to a new era.

These are the larger aspects of the case, and a thing is never really seen until it is seen at its best. It is from this higher viewpoint that the American people should behold the undertaking. The vexatious details of sanitation, engineering, shaping of rivers and digging the waterway must of course be encountered. But these should never obscure from our sight the final goal. This is really a great thing we have set out to do. It will benefit all mankind. It will be a mile post in history. It will make for the future. What are a few comparatively small obstacles that they should stand in the way of this larger good?

Pacific Civilization.

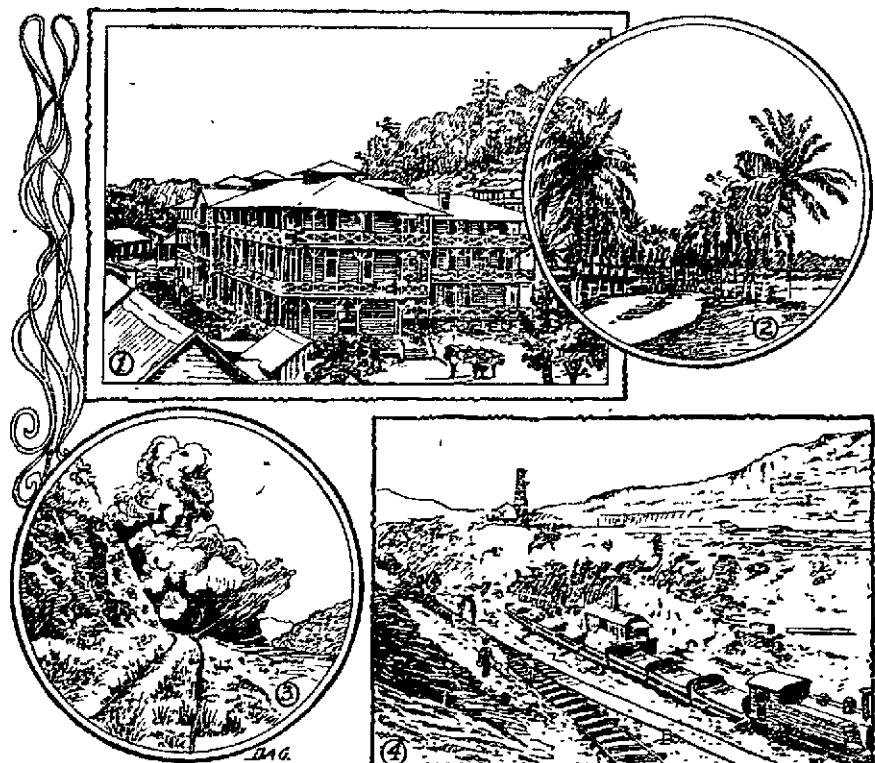

It is not without interest that much of American history for the last decade has had to do with this future Pacific civilization. Our part in the Philippines, in Hawaii, in China, in settling the Russo-Japanese war and in the Panama canal all looks in this direction. The opening of Alaska, the Lewis and Clark expedition, the building up of our Pacific ports, what are all these but parts of the same general scheme? Wait Whitman, with his cosmic vision, saw much of this thing that is now shaping. Perhaps John Hay, with his far-sighted statesmanship, had the same object in view. At any rate, it is plainly coming, and in bringing it about no one step will be more important than the construction of the Panama canal.

Passing from the general to the particular, the present status of the work on the canal can be simply told. There are about 10,000 men now employed, most of whom are engaged in the actual digging of the big ditch. The largest force of these is at work on what is known as the Culebra cut, which was started by the French under De Lesseps. This cut is across the mountains, where the largest amount of excavating must be done. The canal crosses the range at its lowest point, but even at this the hills are in the neighborhood of 300 feet above the level of the sea. The French cut down about half of the way, and the Americans have taken up the work where they left off. Now all this may look easy on paper, but that first 150 feet exhausted the French nation—or that and the climate and the grafting altogether did it—and that was the least difficult end of the work. Digging out the bottom of a mountain range is a harder proposition than digging out the top of it, and it is the bottom half of the contract that we have on our hands.

No Time Being Lost.

The sinking of that other 150 feet is not all that will have to be done, however, for the ditch itself must be at least forty feet in depth. This is supposing of course that the canal is to be a sea level affair, a point that is by no means settled. Most of the engineers favor that plan, but congress must make the decision. It is estimated that it would take $80,000,000 more to build a sea level canal than one with locks at the sixty foot level, and it is practically certain that it will not go above the sixty foot level. It will also require at least two years' additional time. The work that is now being done is such that would have to be done whatever the level. Thus no time is being lost, and Uncle Sam can hear the evidence and arguments of the engineers, after which he can render his verdict.

Many Dams to Be Built.

The cut through the mountains is only a small part of the work. In addition, many dams have to be made, and one river that occasionally goes on a rampage will either have to be domesticated or persuaded to go in some other direction. One proposition is to dig a tunnel through the mountains and make this river run into the other ocean. But, then, turning an adult river from one ocean to another is only a trifling proposition for your Uncle Samuel to tackle. As for the dams, the contemplated one at Bohio is to be abandoned for the simple reason that bedrock is a couple of hundred feet farther down than was imagined, and a dam that is not founded on the eternal rock is like the house built on the sand. It would fall, and great would be the fall of it.

One of the chief difficulties with which the French had to contend was the climate. Panama is hot, malarial, damp, discouraging and generally a touch proposition for civilized white men to run up against. As for the natives, they are used to it, and they are so generally no account that it does not much matter as to them. They are too lazy to dig a ditch even for sewage, much less a ship canal. So it is absolutely necessary for Anglo-Saxons to do the work or at least to oversee it. As before stated, it was the climate and grafting that quivered the French. But what is climate to a Yankee? If it does not suit him he makes it over. This is what he has been engaged in doing at Panama. True, the sun is as hot as ever, but it is not the sun that kills. It is the bad water, the unsanitary conditions, the failure to take precautions in safeguarding health. These things the Americans are in a fair way of overcoming. First, they have done what it never seems to occur to a tropical native to do, and that is to provide for proper sewers in the towns and cities; second, they have got pure, fresh water from the mountains; third, they have provided proper rules and regulations for protecting the physical wellbeing of employees; fourth, they have provided suitable hospitals and medical attendance. The result is that the death rate is only an infinitesimal part of what it was under the French regime.

Immense Progress Made.

Another great work done by the American commissions has been in looking after the proper housing and feeding of the men. This has been a gigantic task in itself, but is now well under way. Then there is a railroad to run, which belongs to Uncle Sam, as well as a steamship line from Colon to New York. The railway proper is only about forty-five miles long, but it has numerous spurs and sidetracks amounting to about 200 miles in all. Then there has been all the French machinery, much of which had been allowed to rust and go to ruin, to renovate or throw into the scrap heap, as the case seemed to warrant. In addition to all of this, there has been an immense amount of surveying to do. All these different departments of the work are organized, and immense progress has been made under each head. Taken all in all, there is nothing discouraging in the situation up to date. The only things that can defeat the work or very materially retard it are red tape and grafting, and the president has shown a very vigorous tendency to discourage both. He seems to think that the only way to dig a canal is to dig it, and as he is the boss of the whole job it may reasonably be expected that the dirt will fly.

About Fifty Miles Long.

The canal winds somewhat and is forty-five miles in length. With the dredging in the sea it will be about fifty miles all told. So far as the plans have been perfected, it will probably be 150 feet wide at the bottom and at least forty feet deep. If built at the sixty foot level several locks will be necessary. If at sea level one lock only will be required. This one lock, which will be near the Pacific entrance, will be for the purpose of shutting out the high tides on the Pacific side, the variation there being twenty feet as against only about four feet on the Atlantic side. The two entrances to the big ditch will be near the cities of Panama and Colon, the termini of the present Panama railway. As to the time required to complete the undertaking, who can tell? The engineers say eight years for the sixty foot level and ten years for the sea level canal. To do the thing actually may take longer. The American people must make up their minds to see the thing through whatever time is needed. The same holds true as to expense. The engineers have figured on $230,000,000 for a sea level ditch and considerably less for a lock canal. It may be more than that. It is one thing to build on paper and another to build on earth. But the American people have made up their minds to stay by the task regardless of expense—provided always that the money does not go into the capacious pocket of the grafter. At present we can rest in the assurance that the canal will be constructed. Come what may, Yankee pluck and grit will see the thing through. Faith will remove mountains, and Uncle Sam has faith. Besides, he has dynamite, steam shovels and vim. No dinky little mountain range 300 feet high can stand before a combination like that.

The Order of Goats.

The Independent Order of Goats, a New Jersey fraternal organization which was incorporated recently at the statehouse in Trenton, has its office at Montclair, says a special dispatch to the New York Times. The order is formed for the relief of its members, to pay death benefits and to promote fraternal interests of its members.

New Way to Fight Mosquitoes.

A Memphis (Mo.) man has discovered a new way to get rid of mosquitoes, says the Kansas City Star. He says to rub alum on your face and hands. When the mosquito takes a bite it packs its buzzer so it can't sting. It sits down in a damp place, tries to dig the pucker loose, catches its death of cold and dies of pneumonia.

A LATER INAUGURATION

Fourth of March Too Early to Be Seasonable.

GOVERNORS ENLISTED IN WORK.

Committee Composed of Chief Executives of States and Other Distinguished People to Meet in Washington Before Convening of Congress—Date to Be Made April 30.

Governors of forty-one states have already joined the movement to postpone the presidential inauguration after 1909 from March 4 to a later and better date, probably April 30, and the national committee on the proposed change is arranging to meet in Washington in November, just before congressional convenes.

H. B. P. Macfarland, commissioner of the District of Columbia and chairman of the national committee, has been in correspondence ever since March 4 last with the governors of states and territories who, with fifteen residents of the District of Columbia, were asked to serve as members of the national committee. He has up to date secured the consent of forty-one governors of the states and territories to serve on the committee and expects that several others will accept this service before the meeting in the fall.

Inevitable delays occur in such correspondence, but the response has been in general so prompt and hearty as to indicate a strong interest in the movement all over the country for a change of inauguration day. All the governors who accepted service expressed approval of the proposition, and some of them are especially emphatic in doing so. This indicates that they are prepared to bring the matter before the people and the legislatures of their states in a favorable light, as well as to lend their influence to the operations of the national committee.

The chief function of that committee is to present the matter to congress in such a way as to secure favorable action. An amendment to the constitution is necessary, and a joint resolution for that purpose will be drafted and introduced at the opening of the next session. The senate has twice passed such a resolution unanimously, and it is believed that its chances in the house will be better next session than heretofore.

The death of Senator Rafe of Tennessee, followed by that of Ambassador Azpiroz and that of Judge Weldon of the court of claims in consequence of exposure on March 4 last, has made a deeper impression as to the dangers of the present inauguration date.

A number of the governors have been members of the committee since 1902, while a number of others have become governors since then and are new to the committee. The list is as follows:

William D. Jinks, Alabama; George C. Pardee, California; Jesse F. McDonald, Colorado; Henry Roberts, Connecticut; Preston Lea, Delaware; N. B. Broward, Florida; Joseph M. Terrell, Georgia; F. R. Gooding, Idaho; Charles S. Deneen, Illinois; J. Frank Hanly, Indiana; Albert B. Cummins, Iowa; E. W. Hoch, Kansas; J. C. W. Beckham, Kentucky; N. C. Blanchard, Louisiana; William T. Cobb, Maine; Edward Warfield, Maryland; John A. Johnson, Minnesota; Joseph W. Folk, Missouri; J. K. Toole, Montana; John H. Mickey, Nebraska; John McLane, New Hampshire; Edwin C. Stokes, New Jersey; Frank W. Higgins, New York; Robert B. Glenn, North Carolina; E. Y. Searles, North Dakota; Myron T. Herrick, Ohio; George H. Chamberlain, Oregon; Samuel W. Pennypacker, Pennsylvania; G. H. Utter, Rhode Island; S. H. Elrod, South Dakota; J. I. Cox, Tennessee; John O. Cutler, Utah; C. J. Bell, Vermont; Andrew J. Montague, Virginia; A. E. Mead, Washington; W. M. O. Dawson, West Virginia; R. M. La Follette, Wisconsin; John B. Brady, Alaska; Joseph H. Kilbey, Arizona; Miguel A. Otero, New Mexico; Thomas B. Ferguson, Oklahoma.

Two vacancies in the list of fifteen residents of the District of Columbia have been filled by the appointment of General John M. Wilson, chairman of the last inauguration committee, and John P. Wilkins. The other district members of the national committee are Henry B. F. Macfarland, permanent chairman; James L. Norris, permanent secretary; Thomas W. Smith, John W. Foster, Admiral George Dewey, General Nelson A. Miles, C. J. Bell, S. W. Woodward, C. C. Glover, Frank A. Munsey, John Joy Edson, Theodore W. Noyes and Justice John M. Harlan.

Big Ear of Corn From Kansas.

M. T. Daniels, a farmer and stockman of Wanam, Kan., who went to Kansas City recently to look over the live stock market, brought an ear of corn from his fields that measured ten inches long and eight and one-half inches in circumference, says the Kansas City Star. There were 1,232 grains on the ear, 22 grains around by 56 grains in length. From butt to tip none of the cob was exposed. The ear weighed one pound ten and one-half ounces. The variety is known as the Mammoth White and cost Daniels $3 a bushel for seedling.

Secretary Shaw an Albatross.

When Secretary Shaw arrived at his old home at Dennison, Ia., where he was to speak at a farmers' day celebration one day recently, he found a cat at the depot to meet him, but with the catman slumbering peacefully on the back seat. Unwilling to awake the weary John, the secretary mounted the box and drove himself to the home of Eugene Guick, a brother-in-law. Here he awakened the astonished catby and dismissed him with more than the usual fee.

UNIQUE CHAPELS.

Feature of Cathedral of St. John Without Ecclesiastical Precedent.

It is planned to make the new Cathedral of St. John the Divine, now in process of erection at Morningside heights, New York, a church representative on American soil of all the nations that have contributed their people to the upbuilding of the United States. The plan for extending in a single great edifice opportunities for foreign born worshippers of many modes of speech to attend services conducted in their native tongues is entirely without precedent in ecclesiastical annals.

That such opportunities may exist the trustees of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine have made the seven chapels of the church national sanctuaries where alien Christians may worship in their own languages. One has been completed already and is popularly called the Belmont chapel from the fact that the well known New York banker, August Belmont, gave $100,000 for its erection in memory of his mother. Another, on which work is beginning, will be a memorial to Mary Rhinelander King and is the gift of Mrs. Edward King of New York and Newport. The latter is to be called the Scot's chapel and dedicated in the name of St. Columba, being the chapel of the British rite.

The Belmont memorial is officially designated the chapel of the oriental rite, dedicated to the Holy Name and is to be called in common use St. Saviour's chapel. It is the easternmost of the seven, and it was therefore considered most appropriate to give it the name and dedication decided upon. With the rise of mariolatry, as theologians call the worship of the Virgin Mary, it became the custom in the middle ages to add a "lady chapel" to the eastern end of all large churches, and so universal did this custom become that a cathedral without such a sanctuary is not now regarded as complete. The title "lady chapel" did not seem appropriate, however, for any portion of a Protestant cathedral built after the Reformation.

The seven chapels, which are to be built as fast as the funds for them are forthcoming, will stand about the choir of the cathedral in a semicircle. Each will be a little church large enough for about a hundred persons, and the group will be separated from the rest of the edifice by a corridor, from which they will be entered. The five remaining structures are to be the Swedes chapel, that of the Scandinavian rite; the Holland chapel, that of the German rite; the Italian chapel, the Huguenot chapel and the chapel of the Mozarabic rite, to be called the Spanish chapel.

MONUMENT TO A HORSE.

Massive Granite Figure in Memory of Portland (Me.) Man's Pet Steed.

John H. Carroll, who removed to Gorham, Me., several years ago and built a handsome residence, is the only living member of one of Portland's distinguished families, says the Portland (Me.) Express. In the center of a triangular piece of land opposite Mr. Carroll's house there has recently been erected a monument that has attracted much attention. A massive block of granite twelve feet in length forms the base upon which rests a handsome upper stone, one side of which bears these words: "A loving and faithful friend, Prince." On the other side is the full figure of a horse.

Prince had been owned by his master eighteen years, and the friendship between them was deep and sincere. John Heald of Portland sold Prince to Mr. Carroll when he was six years old, and at first he was so high spirited that he was almost unmanageable, and his new master feared that he would not be able to keep him. Mr. Heald urged him to give the handsome creature a longer trial. Kindness was the key that won the heart of Prince, and Mr. Carroll soon found that by gentle treatment he could do anything with the noble beast. Prince knew his master's footsteps, and when he heard him approach the stable he would whinny and stamp with joy.

IT IS WILKES-BARRE NOW.

Name of Pennsylvania City Changed to Please Citizens.

President Roosevelt has ordered that hereafter the name of the city of Wilkesbarre shall be spelled "Wilkes-Barre," with a hyphen and a capital B, says a special dispatch to the New York Herald.

When Mr. Roosevelt was at Wilkesbarre on Aug. 10 Mayor Kirkendall and Bishop Hoban told him residents of the city objected to an arbitrary decision of the postoffice department made some years ago to spell it without a hyphen and with a small B—"Wilkesbarre." He inquired about the city's history, and learning it had been named after Colonel Wilkes and Colonel Barre, he promised to have the official spelling changed to the original form.

Mayor Kirkendall received a letter from the president recently announcing that he had ordered the postoffice department to make the change.

Alligators as Pets.

Harry Stevens of Sanford, Fla., who has recently been visiting friends at Ashley, near Wilkesbarre, Pa., brought with him from the south twelve novel presents, says the Philadelphia Press. They are twelve small alligators, and he has distributed them to Ashley friends. The alligators are about a foot long and Sanford caught them in the Florida marshes. They often grow to a length of seventeen or eighteen feet and when small are worth $5 each. While they are all right now when they are small, the friends who have received them are wondering what they will do with them when they grow large.

CHINA'S REAWAKENING.

Coming Nation of the East, Predicts Rev. Dr. T. Richard.

SOON TO OUTSTRIP JAPAN, HE SAYS

Determined to Develop Along Same Lines as Mikado's Kingdom, Says an Old Resident of China—Feels Yoke of European Tyranny Keenly and Will Shake It Off—Danger of Future Bloodshed.

"China is bound to be the coming nation of the east. It will soon be ahead of Japan." This is the prophecy of a man who has spent thirty-six years in China and hopes to end his days there. It is that of the Rev. Dr. T. Richard, with whom I had an interesting conversation recently in London, writes a member of the London Daily News staff.

"China will be greater than Japan within half a century," the doctor declared, still in prophetic vein. The past history of China, considered with the remarkable movements now maturing there, bears him out. China has held together a larger number of people than you find in any other nation in the world. It has done that for over 2,000 years. That means great powers of organization. Now that China is adopting new methods you will find it will still be able to hold together in face of all the world.

"By use of arms?"

"Well, China is determined to develop along the same lines as Japan. The Chinese are prepared to modify their laws and customs. They are going to learn everything they can from western civilization. In thirty years' time, having learned all that Europeans can teach them, they will get rid of their teachers, as Japan has. Then you will see them rise ahead of Japan and become as powerful a nation as any in Europe."

"Is Japan nursing them?"

"To some extent she is. The Japanese have for ten years been organizing an Asiatic league. This league is not only identified with China, but with all the nations of Asia. Statesmen from Siam, India and Persia, as well as from China, are influenced by the league and visit Japan solely in connection with its objects."

"Which are?"

"To resist the west with its own weapons, but with an army far superior in numbers. The people of Asia are sick of the white peril. The arrogance of Europeans has become unbearable to them. China feels this more keenly than the other Asiatic nations. The Boxer rising was but an expression of that feeling. That rebellion taught the Chinese they could do nothing against European armies without European methods. They will not rise against the Europeans again until they have learned what the Japanese have learned. And then as a great power they will outclass the Japanese. The people in England—nay, in Europe—have no idea of the extent to which China is storing its arsenals and training its men."

"And what does it all mean?"

"It means many things. First, China does not intend to lie at the mercy of Japan. It is a mistake to suppose that Japan is going to do what she likes with China. It also means that China is determined to shake off the yoke of European tyranny, which she feels keenly."

"Then you see a future of bloodshed?"

"What I fear is that unless the nations of Christendom begin at once to act justly toward China the day may come when China may inflict a terrible revenge upon the white races for their tyranny to the Chinese in their times of weakness. The Chinese are as much infected with the fear of the white peril as Europeans are with the fear of the yellow peril. Unless the two continents change their attitude I do not see how fearful bloodshed is to be avoided."

"Can they change?"

"I am sure that so far as China is concerned its development can go on without war. That, however, depends wholly on the attitude of Europeans. Let them be peaceful, and the Chinese will be peaceful. Let them make war, and the Chinese will make war. The reawakening of China has not only brought a peace party to the front, it has brought a peace party to the front. It depends on the attitude of western nations as to which party becomes supreme in China. One of the main objects of my present visit to England is to plead for more peaceful methods in our and other nations' dealings with China."

"Failing which?"

"China will soon have a standing army that will threaten the peace of the whole world. It is not too late for western nations to prevent that, and in preventing it they would learn the lesson of universal peace themselves."

Tan Shoes For Winter Wear.

"A new winter tan shoe is to be worn this fall," said a traveling salesman recently to a Kansas City reporter at the Coates House, in Kansas City, Mo., "and men who like foot comfort will appreciate it. In the past the real objection to wearing tan shoes in the winter has been their staining and discoloration by slush and rain. A new method of tanning has been discovered that avoids these objections, and makers controlling the process are busy lasting the shoes."

DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN OPENING, NEWARK, SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 23.

PRESIDENT

Hears From Secretary Taft—Entertains Chinese Minister and Others Monday Afternoon.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Sept. 18.—President Roosevelt has received a cable message from Secretary Taft bearing on the Japanese riots. Taft is now in Japan with Miss Alice Roosevelt and his party and cables assurances to the President that the disturbances caused by the disappointing outcome of the Portsmouth peace negotiations were not indicative of any antagonism toward the Americans. In fact, Taft cables there was not a trace of anti-foreign feeling among the rioters.

This afternoon the President received a call from the Chinese minister, Sir Chen Tung Liang Chang, who came to present Mr. Wang Tai Sleh, an important personage in the Chinese foreign office. Secretary of the navy and Mrs. Bonaparte will be the President's guests at dinner this evening. They will arrive on the Dolphin which will take them to New York, after their visit. Secretary and Mrs. Bonaparte have been spending their summer vacation in the Berkshire Hills of Massachusetts, and are now on their way to Washington.

WORD FROM TAFT.

Washington, Sept. 18.—The war department has received a dispatch from Yokohama announcing the departure yesterday of Secretary Taft and party, who will arrive at San Francisco about October 19. GRAND JURIES

To Be Held for Term in Columbus If Prosecutor Seymour's Suggestion Is Acted Upon in Court.

If the suggestion of Prosecuting Attorney A. T. Seymour, of Columbus, a former Newark man, is made to the common pleas judges, it is adopted, sessions of the grand jury will mean much more to its members than heretofore. Occasions have often arisen in the past calling for the action of a special grand jury, which has cost the county considerable money. Prosecuting Attorney Seymour, during the present week at Columbus will present to the common pleas judges a suggestion, which it is expected, will go away with this expense and facilitate matters considerably.

The idea to hold all of the grand juries recommended for the various counties ready for instant service, thus saving the expense of calling grand juries of the future will not be extended each term as soon as their special duties are performed, but they will be held ready for service on all occasions and will not be dissolved in a single grand jury for the next term.

It will do away with special grand jury calls and their expense.

Was He a Soldier?

People in the various parts of the state, and of this vicinity, have been asking this question:

"Was Mr. Patterson, the Democratic candidate for Governor, a soldier in the Civil War?"

They have the right to ask this question, and are entitled to an answer.

He was.

He served as a private soldier in Company I, 153d O. V. I.

He enlisted in his sixteenth year. He was honorably discharged at the end of his enlistment.

He is a member of S. R. S. West Post, G. A. R., Millford, Ohio.

This goes as his descriptive list.

Only Normal Vote Needed.

Not in years has the effort been made to arouse what is termed the normal Democratic vote in this state that is being made by Democratic leaders this fall. The managers of the Democratic campaign say that if John M. Patterson can poll the vote cast for William J. Bryan for president in 1896 Myron T. Herrick will be defeated by from 50,000 to 75,000 majority.

T. J. Meals of Columbus, a member of the Democratic state committee, has just completed the compilation of some pertinent facts in connection with the preliminary work looking toward getting out the full party vote in November.

The statement is made that the sole reason for the failure to elect a Democratic governor is the stay-at-home Democrats. In substantiation of this statement it is set forth that in 1896 Bryan received 474,822 votes in Ohio out of a total vote of 1,020,107. The Bryan vote is regarded as the normal Democratic vote.

In 1897 Horace Chapman, Democratic candidate for governor, received 401,750 votes for governor or 73,000 less than Bryan received the year before. The compilation of Mr. Meals, which is to be sent broadcast over the state, especially in Democratic counties, shows that had Chapman received the vote cast for Bryan he would have been elected governor by a plurality of 44,907. Continuing, the figures show that had John R. McLean, candidate for governor in 1899, received the Bryan vote he would have been elected by a plurality of 57,723; had James R. Kilbourne, candidate in 1901, received the Bryan vote he would have been elected governor by a plurality of 38,730; had Tom L. Johnson, candidate for governor in 1903, received the Bryan vote he would have come within 800 votes of defeating Myron T. Herrick, although the latter was elected by the largest majority ever given to a governor in Ohio.

"These figures are most interesting from the fact that all indications point to a great Democratic vote this fall," said Mr. Meals. "There is every hope that he will poll the normal Democratic vote. Couple this with the admitted and emphatic Republican opposition to Herrick and there is every reason to believe that here is a magnificent opportunity to administer a tremendous and never to be forgotten rebuke to the arrogant Republican bosses and machine leaders this fall."

DEMOCRAT

Will Sit in Presidential Chair Three Years Hence, Declares General A. J. Warner.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 18.—General A. J. Warner of Marietta, O., former congressman from Ohio, and the original advocate of free silver, is extremely optimistic over the outlook of the Democrats in the Presidential campaign three years hence.

"The next President will be a Democrat, and a good one," said General Warner in an interview at the Union Station. "I have no hesitancy in making a positive statement to this effect, for I know that the Democratic party will show up stronger in the coming campaign than it has ever been before."

"There will be one strong issue in the Democratic platform. The sentiment in favor of a revision of the tariff is growing, and we intend to make a fight on this point." General Warner said the party wanted no more radical men, and Bryan will not be considered.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some souse meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one twenty-five cent bottle cured the three of us." For sale by all druggists.

BUTCHERS OF THE BANK INSPECTION BILL

While Governor Herrick is making promises to do things better in the future, especially to recommend the enactment of a state bank inspection law, he should explain why he was covertly opposed to the Moore senate bill in the last legislature, and why all his immediate friends and the state house or "official" lobby done the bill to death in the house with the governor's knowledge, if not, indeed with his consent and approval.

The bill provided for the most thorough inspection of the private banks of the state, and passed the senate with but slight opposition.

But in the house it met with desperate and relentless opposition by a lobby, which included the Cincinnati boss, who conducted the battle from start to victory, by long distance telephone.

That money was freely used is beyond all question. All the private banks in the state that have recently gone into bankruptcy contributed money to defeat the bill in the house. The receivers of these bankrupt concerns could, if they chose, no doubt tell exactly how much of the depositors' money went to defeat a measure intended to protect them.

We know, at least, of some receivers who have the cashed checks which show how much it cost the stockholders of the banks placed in their hands to keep the bars from being put up.

When Senate Bill No. 62, by Mr. Moore, was pending in both the senate and the house, Governor Herrick gave no sign of recognition to it; did nothing to smooth its passage; did nothing to rebuke or disperse the lobby which was killing it in the house.

As already stated, the bill passed the senate, but in the house it was defeated by the votes of the Republican representatives named below, who at some or all the stages of its attempted passage voted to kill by voting no and killing it. They were:

Braunock, Briggs, Burnett, Carrothers, Crist, Criswell, Demuth, Eagleson, Evans, Fisher, Foster, Frizell, Jones of Lucas, Jones of Jefferson, Kennedy, Little, Moulton, Myers, Nihart, Osler, Pumphrey, Rawson, Reynolds, Riegle, Roll, Rowland, Stuckey, Sprague, Stewart, Thomas, Thompson of Lawrence, Wagner, Wayne, Williams of Hamilton, Williams of Mahoning, Willis, Worthington.

IS BITTER AGAINST GOVERNOR HERRICK

Stenographer Now Keeps Roomers in the City of Chicago—Was Driven From Home.

Chicago, Sept. 18.—Mrs. Timothy R. Herrick, stepmother of Governor Myron T. Herrick, of Ohio, and for many years a member of the most fashionable circles of the Buckeye state, was found to-day living quietly and utterly alone in a flat building, No. 265 Warren avenue.

The only income she has is that coming from roomers. A few Ohio students whose parents knew Mrs. Herrick when she was a woman of possessions and comparative wealth, rent apartments from her.

Not two blocks away is the former home of Mrs. Ivers Lawrence, the woman who charged Governor Herrick with being the father of her son, and who is charged by Governor Herrick in return with being one of the cleverest women blackmailers that ever operated.

Mrs. Herrick is bitter against Gov. Herrick. But it was not until seen to-day that she ever consented to discuss the story involving the domestic life of the Herricks in any phase.

The widow of Timothy R. Herrick had been married twice before, being married to the governor's father in 1836. "I have held my peace and bided my time for long years," she said to-day, "but I can stand my punishment no longer. From this day, I will do everything in my power to expose the life of Ohio's famous governor. And he will fear me."

"While the son of a man I loved and cherished for fifteen years, lives amid luxury, I am forced to take roomers to keep the wolf from breaking through the door and devouring me."

"The wife of Governor Herrick has refused to send me even her old clothing. They have refused to give me one cent."

"When Governor Herrick's brother was on his death bed, the young governor promised he would always 'look out for Lucy,' but what has he done. The following month I was driven from my home."

Mrs. Herrick is now 52 years old. Two million Americans suffer the torturing pains of dyspepsia. No need to buy Luck's Blood Bitters cures. At any drug store.

From Columbus Parties Asked to Night and Local Police Sunday Watch for Thieves.

Word was received by the local police department to keep a lookout for an automobile which was stolen from Columbus Sunday night. The car was left standing in front of the State Journal office for a few moments and disappeared. A description of the machine was furnished to the police but nothing has been seen in Newark or it.

APPELYARD ROADS EARN GOOD PROFITS

Receiver Wheeler of German Bank at Buffalo May Realize More Than Expected on Trolley Bonds.

Buffalo, Sept. 18.—Receiver A. J. Wheeler of the German bank at Buffalo says that he is not now able to announce at present when he will go into court and ask for authority to accept the offer of $300,000 by the directors and former president, Eugene A. Georger in settlement of the civil actions against them. He said that he is receiving communications daily from depositors and creditors of the bank not connected with any of the depositors' organizations, urging him to accept the $300,000.

Mr. Wheeler received advices from the Appleyard system of trolley roads in Ohio which encourages him to believe that the bank will be able to recover more than he expected from the Appleyard bonds held as collateral for some of the loans to Appleyard and his railroads. Heretofore he has believed that he would realize $225,000 from the bonds of those roads. Now, according to advices received from Receiver J. G. Schmidlapp and Myron H. Wilson of the Appleyard roads, the prospect is that even more than $225,000 will be received. "This encouraging report is sustained by cash reports of five of the Appleyard roads that all had earnings in excess of their expenses during June and July. The earnings were as follows: Central Market Street Railway company, for June; gross earnings, $17,113.81; expenses, $17,055.79; net earnings and net profits are the same, $58.02; for July, gross earnings, $14,765.85; expenses, $11,488.96; net earnings and profits, $3,276.89.

Urbana, Bellefontaine and Northern: for June, gross earnings, $2,335.58; expenses, $2,022.32; net earnings and net profits, $313.26; for July, gross earnings, $4,160.91; expenses, $2,783.51; net earnings and profits, $1,377.40.

Columbus, Grove City and North-western: for June, gross earnings, $4,309.10; expenses, $3,216.07; net profits, $1,093.03; for July, gross earnings, $4,535.10; expenses, $4,215.55; net profits, $322.55.

Columbus, London & Springfield: for June, gross earnings, $20,695.72; expenses, $12,900.88; net profits, $6,794.84; for July, gross earnings, $22,052.59; expenses, $14,949.71; net profits, $7,102.88.

Dayton, Springfield & Urbana: for June, gross earnings, $20,148.28; expenses, $12,222.32; net profits, $6,815.28; for July, gross earnings, $24,719.90; expenses, $14,934.11; net profits, $9,785.

The net profit of the five roads amount to $36,002.43 for the two months. The most encouraging feature of the report, however, is that whereas formerly only the last two roads were on a paying basis, now three others are more than paying expenses. In addition the Chippewa Valley road continues to pay interest on its bonds. The outcome of this is that the bonds of all of the roads will bring a price in the markets where there has been no demand for them heretofore.

EPISODE

Of the Civil War Recalled by the Financing of Cole Younger's New Traction Line.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 18.—Cole Younger, promoter of the electric line which is to pass through the old home counties of the James boys and Youngers and thence to Jefferson City, with a probability of later being extended to St. Louis, says that the money to finance his project is being furnished by Eastern capitalists. It is understood, however, that Senator Elkins, of West Virginia, is furnishing the greater part. Why Senator Elkins should befriend the ex-outlaw is a story that dates back to the days of the Civil War when Elkins was a resident of Missouri. At the outbreak of the war Elkins enlisted in the Federal army. The Younger boys and Frank James were then members of the Quantrell band. During the raid Elkins fell into the hands of the guerrilla chieftain and the order was given to "take him to the rear," which in Quantrell parlance meant death.

Cole Younger and Frank James overtook the squad conveying Elkins to his death and upon a promise to be responsible for the carrying out of Quantrell's orders secured possession of the prisoner. About this time the guerrilla band engaged a troop of Federal soldiers and in the excitement Younger and James allowed Elkins, who was an old friend, to escape. Elkins never forgot the kindness, and in later years frequently showed his gratitude to the ex-outlaws, being instrumental in securing Cole Younger's pardon from the Minnesota penitentiary.

SIGHTLESS

And Confronted With Starvation, Afflicted Couple Plead for Work, Not Charity.

New York, Sept. 18.—An application was made Sunday to the Bureau of Associated Charities of Newark, N. J., by John Whelan, of No. 55 Summit street, and his wife, for aid in getting work, and revealed a pathetic story of affliction. Both Mr. and Mrs. Whelan are totally blind, but both are emphatic in declaring that neither desires nor will accept charity.

"Give me work," pleaded the husband. "I can cane chairs, labor in the wood yard and make myself useful in many ways if I only get a chance." "And I, too, can work," said the wife, "if you will give me an opportunity. For, although I am blind, like my husband, I can thread my needle and do plain sewing, or I can wash clothes. Try me."

Investigation disclosed the fact that for five years the couple have been sightless. They were married nine years ago. He is now 33 years old, and she just six months younger. After four years of happiness and comfort, with bright hopes for the future, the wife lost the sight of one eye, and then of the other.

Whelan comforted her in her affliction and toiled to provide every comfort possible for her. But one night he retired, apparently sound in vision, and awoke the next morning himself totally blind.

Facing the future with grim determination, Mr. and Mrs. Whelan, by frugal living, managed to live without other aid on what they had saved to buy them a home. When this resource gave out Whelan caned chairs and did odd jobs. Recently work failed, and, with starvation facing him and his wife, he swallowed his pride and appealed to the Charities Bureau, not for charity, but for employment. Superintendent McDougall has made a public appeal for assistance for the Whelans.

REGISTRATION AT OLD DENISON

OUTLOOK FOR SUCCESSFUL YEAR AT GRANVILLE SCHOOL IS VERY BRIGHT.

Young Woman from Japan Arrives to Begin School Work—W. C. T. U. Meeting—College News.

Granville, Sept. 18.—All the departments of Denison University are now open for the regular college work. Registration has been quite completed, and the registration is unusually large. Approximately sixty young women have entered Shepardson college for the first time, besides the old students who have returned. The number of new students who have entered Doane academy and the college is correspondingly large, and suitable boarding and rooming quarters have been secured by the students.

The Conservatory of Music, of which Prof. Arthur Judson is dean, is well equipped for the work in that department this year. There have been a few changes in the instructors in the conservatory, more definite announcement of which will be made in a few days. One announcement, in which Newark people will have a special interest is that Miss Elsie Herschberg of that city, who was graduated from the Conservatory last June, will be Miss Blinn's assistant in voice this year.

Much attention is given in Denison to Christian influences. The very atmosphere of Granville is one of purity, and the students are brought to realize this at once and to take an active part in the religious exercises, both in the church and Christian organizations.

Some very helpful organizations in connection with the college are literary societies, being six in number, the Calliopean and Franklin of the college, Irving and Ciceroian of the academy, and Philomathean and Euterpean of Shepardson college. Membership of these societies has always been flourishing and will probably be increased and strengthened this year. The two college literary societies have been with out rooms for a few years, their former society halls having been adapted to the use of students for lodgings. They are no longer handicapped by this circumstance, as two very fine halls have been provided in Cleveland Hall for the use of the college literary societies. The societies of Shepardson college are at present without rooms, but hope before long to have arrangements made for them. The athletic phase of college life is well emphasized here, and at present a great deal of interest is being manifested in football practice. The Denison team will meet some of the strongest college teams in the country this season, and is desirous of making a good showing, which, under the coaching of Prof. Stanton, is well assured.

Another factor of college life at Denison which is recognized as influential and important is the fraternity spirit. There are now represented in Denison three national fraternities, one local and two sororities. The fraternities are Sigma Chi, Phi Gamma Delta, Beta Theta Pi, and the Beta Alpha Delta. All of these organizations have their own homes, which are comfortable and well suited to the needs of the fraternities. The sororities are Kappa Phi and Chi Psi Delta. Chi Psi Delta has recently bought the old Gilman property, which is being repaired and remodelled, and the rooms will be ready for occupancy in a short time. Kappa Phi has purchased a fine lot on Plum street, upon which they expect to erect a house in the near future.

Much interest has been occasioned by the arrival of a young Japanese lady direct from Japan. The young lady in question is Miss Kiku Ishihara (meaning chrysanthemum). Through the missionaries in Japan she embraced Christianity. From Japan she was accompanied by friends as far as Seattle, but travelled alone from that point to Granville. She dresses in the regulation Japanese costume, and attracts considerable attention when she appears on the street. She will make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Topping, who were Baptist missionaries in Japan for several years, and who won the friendship of the young lady at that time. After Miss Ishihara becomes accustomed to life in Granville she expects to take up work in some department of the university.

A postponed meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held at the home of Mrs. L. R. Jones on Saturday afternoon, at which members answered at roll call with quotations. Considerable business of importance for the good of the union was transacted. The present officers of the union are as follows: President, Mrs. J. M. Jones, vice president, Mrs. S. E. Carson, Mrs. Lillian Aid, Mrs. Anna Davis, and Mrs. Laura Prior; corresponding secretary, Mrs. K. L. Knowlton, recording secretary, Mrs. Sadie Jones; treasurer, Mrs. Etta Wood.

FINE JEWELRY STORE

Is That Recently Opened by Fuchs Brothers on West Main Street.

A new business house recently established in Newark that is deserving of recognition is that of the jewelry store of Fuchs Brothers, 35 West Main street, and is certainly meriting special comment. The Fuchs Brothers are gentlemen who are thoroughly versed in every department of the jewelry business. They have a magnificent array of jewelry on exhibition, reflected from a series of massive glass cases, and presents a most attractive appearance. Here everything in the jeweler's line is to be found, including watches, rings, silverware, of all kinds, art glass, hand-painted china, umbrellas, gold-headed canes, fine watches of all the best makes, clocks that never fail to keep good time, and an endless array of other articles. In short nothing becoming a first-class jewelry store is wanting, while in repairing and adjusting fine watches, no one is more particular, or more capable. In fact the store is up-to-date in every particular.

GEO. ALLEN FOUND DEAD IN ROOM

VETERAN HAD BEEN DEAD AT LEAST A WEEK IT IS THOUGHT.

Colored Cook Had Prepared to Retire When Stricken With Some Fatal Malady.

George Allen, aged about 65, one of the best known colored men in Newark, was found dead in his room, on the third floor of the Mohlenpah building on South Third street at 8:45 o'clock Saturday evening by Mr. John Mohlenpah and William Kaiser.

The body was in a frightful state of decomposition, and it is probable that the man had been dead for over a week. Coroner Legge was notified and viewed the remains after which it was turned over to undertakers Bowers & Criss Bros., and was buried Sunday afternoon.

Allen has been missing for about a week or ten days but it was not suspected that he was dead until the tenant of the front apartment next that of his, informed Mr. Mohlenpah Saturday night that for several days he had been noticing a stench, which had finally become almost unbearable. The latter secured a lamp with a reflector, and went to the aged negro's room, where he lived by himself, and threw the light through the transom.

The body was lying on the side of the bed, with the feet on the floor. Coroner Legge was called and broke open the door, where he found a terrible condition. The man had evidently prepared to retire, when he was stricken with some fatal malady probably rheumatism of the heart. His shoes and coat were off, and his suspenders was thrown down from the shoulder.

Allen was employed off and on as second cook at the Hotel Warden, and was an old soldier.

CHILDREN'S DAY

At the Big Licking County Fair Will Be Largely Attended.

The Licking County Agricultural Society has determined to make the fair this year the banner fair of the society. Nothing has been left undone that should be done to make the fair a big success, and the indications are that their anticipations will be more than realized providing the weather man does his part. There will be four big days this year, Wednesday will be Ladies' day; Thursday, Children's day; Friday, Home Comers' day and Saturday, everybody's day. In regard to Children's day, every school teacher in the county will be supplied with tickets, which they will distribute among their pupils. Tickets will be furnished by calling on or addressing J. M. Farmer, secretary, Newark. It is earnestly requested that all teachers send in their applications, stating the number of tickets needed, as soon as possible. If the teachers and scholars of the various schools throughout the county do not receive tickets it will be their own fault. Mr. Farmer, the secretary of the society has received word that already a number of the school boards in the county have taken action on the matter, and all adjourned school for "Children's day," realizing that the school youth will derive more benefit from a day's study of the products of old Licking than they would from study. Quite a number of the boards have also adjourned school on Friday, in order that the children may also attend "Home-comers' reunion." 9-16-2sw2t

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonials received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

CONVENTION TUESDAY NIGHT

LEGGE, MCLEERY AND FORRY ARE CANDIDATES FOR OFFICE OF MAYOR.

Meeting of Party Workers Held Sunday, but Postmaster Heisey Was Not Among Those Present.

A meeting was held Sunday in the office of Earl W. Murphy, the effects of which will be seen at the Republican convention to be held Tuesday evening. A number of the leading party politicians were present, but there was one absentee, who was conspicuous by his absence. This was Postmaster George (Cox) Heisey. Another was George H. Hamilton. In fact neither had been invited, it is said, nor any one with leanings toward the Heisey faction.

The object of the meeting was to frame up a plan for the defeat of Heisey's candidate, C. C. Forry, in Tuesday night's convention.

The race now looking to be between Dr. M. McCleery and Dr. Legge. Charges and counter charges are being made by the supporters of both these candidates, that the other has attempted to make a deal with the postmaster. If such a deal is consummated by either the other faction will to a man bolt the ticket nominated and make Mayor Crilly's election even more certain than it is.

CHAMPION ORR

Copy of the Autograph Letter Received by Newark Boy From President Theodore Roosevelt.

Late Saturday afternoon Sergeant C. E. Orr winner of the national championship at the Sea Girt rifle shoot and winner of the Ohio state championship medal at the recent match held in Newark, brought to the Advocate an autograph letter from the president congratulating him upon the achievement. The letter reads as follows:

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Sept. 11, '05.
My Dear Sergeant Orr:

I congratulate you most heartily upon winning the president's medal for the military championship of the United States. Nothing is more important in a republic of freemen than that the freemen should be able to protect themselves. Just as it is vital that each citizen should show honesty and intelligence in doing his part toward achieving successful self-government under republican institutions, so it is vital that the average man should be able to do his duty as a soldier if ever the republic should be forced into war. To show oneself a good marksman, to show ability to shoot straight, is to give proof of possessing one of the essentials of good soldiery. I feel that you have reflected honor not only upon yourself and not only upon the National Guard, but upon the entire country.

With all good wishes, believe me,
Sincerely Yours,
(Signed) THEO. ROOSEVELT.
Sergeant Clarence E. Orr, Ohio National Guard, Newark, O.

AMUSEMENTS

The seat sale for "Devil's Auction," opened with a rush at the Auditorium this morning and a crowded house will doubtless greet this popular production on Wednesday evening.

Among the very many clever things which have become part and parcel of the kaleidoscopic performance of Chas. H. Yale's "Everlasting Devil's Auction" company, is a number of exceedingly funny and intricate trick scenes that each year are introduced in this popular show-play.

Mr. Yale states that in the present twenty-fourth edition there will be no deviation to this rule and that a new and very laughable trick scene entitled "The Magic Picture Gallery" in which Toby, the transformed monkey, again meets his old enemy "Chao" the sprite, resulting in the introduction of a series of new tricks, odd mechanical effects, scene leaps, star and vampire trap workings, and a tremendously funny episode between a gigantic cat and a peedle dog, which will prove most interesting to the oldest or youngest theater-goer.

AT SUNRISE.

The great melo-drama "At Sunrise" will appear at the Auditorium on Saturday, both matinee and night. Prices will remain the same 25, 35 and 50 for night and 15 and 25 for matinee. Seat sale will open Friday morning.

Not the fashion plate imitations of worn out whims, but the live, vigorous New York clothes-shapes which men of taste and originality are demanding in the big centers of business and social activity. That is the advantage which the man who wears Our Smart Clothes has over the man who sticks to the average custom tailor. Hard to make them see it, but sooner or later they come around. SOUTH END PEOPLE DISTURBED BY BOYS

A Case of Beer Figured in Their Fun Which Was Broken Up by the Appearance of the Police.

The police received a call Sunday night that a crowd of young boys were making the night hideous in the south end of the city by drinking and carousing on the street. Officers McClure and Jamison responded to the call in a hurry and when they rounded the corner took to the dark alleys like rats. Harry Cochran was the only member of the party caught. He was charged with being drunk and disorderly. The boys had a case of beer on the corner and were celebrating the victory of the Newark team over the amateurs from Columbus. In police court, Cochran was fined $5 and costs.

Pattison, the next governor of Ohio was born," declared Dr. E. Edwin Smith on Sunday night in his farewell sermon before going to accept the presidency of Ohio Northern university at Ada. Norris Jury Disagrees.
Springfield, O., Sept. 18.—After being out 17 hours the jury in the John T. Norris blackmail case reported that they could reach no agreement. For 42 ballots they stood six for acquittal and six for conviction. Norris is one of the best known detectives in the country and was indicted on a charge of blackmailing saloon keepers while in the employ of the Law and Order league. On a former trial of the case it was taken to the circuit court and then to the supreme court, from which latter tribunal it was remanded back to the common pleas court for a new trial.

Accidentally Shot.
Cleveland, O., Sept. 18.—James W. Mayhan was fatally shot in the head while members of Company F of the Fifth regiment, Ohio National Guard, were having target practice at White Villa, in the western end of the city. The shot was fired by First Sergeant Frank B. Locke. Mayhan and another member of the company were in the pit marking the score. The manner in which Mayhan received his injury is something of a mystery. It is not certain whether he raised his head too far or whether the bullet glanced back from the target.

Light Plant Burns.
Loudonville, O., Sept. 18.—The electric light plant at this place was almost totally destroyed by fire. It is supposed that the fire was caused by spontaneous combustion. By this fire the city will be in darkness for weeks and the water supply will be cut off, as the plant furnished the power for pumping the water into the reservoir. The plant was owned and operated by the city and was valued at $10,000.

Waded Into Water TO CATCH HIGH FLY

Bissell Astonished the Natives at Belleville With His Funny Stunts in a Miniature Lake.

The game at Belleville Saturday was of the kind that is seldom seen. A heavy rain fell during the previous night and the grounds were left in bad condition. The outfielders played from the edge of a lake which extended from the first base line to the third base foul line. In spite of this handicap, Newark won the game 7 to 0.

M. & M. 9; North Stars 6.

Defeated Central Leaguers.
Saturday the Homestead independent team defeated the Wheeling champions of the Central league, 7 to 1. The question local fans are debating is: If Homestead defeated the Singles in such a decisive score, what would happen if Irwin's bats would cross bats with the mighty Moose. It has always been argued that the Central league isn't the fastest baseball organization that has existed in a century.

Woodruff, from Louisville, who is to take Phyle's place with Youngstown today, has been tried out with the Cincinnati Reds on several occasions. He stayed there about the same length of time Marty Hogan did when he was playing ball for a living—a minute.

Winner of Swimming Match.
New York, Sept. 18.—Of 25 men who started in the third annual endurance swimming match of the United States volunteer lifesaving corps, only one was in the water at the finish. Alfred Brown of the College Point crew swam 15 miles, the entire distance from Brooklyn bridge to Steeplechase pier, Coney Island, and won the gold medal. His time was 6 hours 32 minutes and 20 seconds. Three others reached the engineers' dock at Fort Hamilton.

BASE BALL GOSSIP

Many fans were disappointed Sunday over the failure of the Columbus professionals to appear at Idlewild park for the afternoon game that had been advertised.

President S. K. Hayes, of the Newark baseball club, said to the Advocate Monday that he was as much disappointed as the spectators. Justice, McAllister, Al Miller and others were expected in the game and they waited till late Saturday night to notify the management of their inability to be present. Mr. Hayes did the best he could under the circumstances and stationed a man outside the gate to announce to the people that Justice et al were not present so that nobody need enter the gate under false impression. It was a poor exhibition of ball on Sunday, but the management feels that all that was possible was done to provide a good Sunday game.

The fans at Idlewild park Sunday afternoon demanded rain checks as soon as the rain drops commenced to get a little numerous. They forgot or probably don't know, that the umpire is compelled by the rules to call time for thirty minutes before the game can be called on account of rain. The management would have been in a bad fix had the rain checks been issued yesterday, as the Pittsburghers would not stand for six or seven hundred rain checks presented at today's game.

The Newark team went up against a bunch of hard luck on their three day barnstorming trip last week. Lefty Snyder, the ever popular favorite with the local fans, was in the worst lurch. In some unaccountable manner, he went into the home plate at Belleville and tore a ligament loose in his knee. He will probably be out of the game for the rest of the season. McDonald has a bad hand for a pet but is still able to keep playing. Schweitzer has almost entirely recovered from his injury and is now his former self in center field.

Howard Stone, the Silent Man, did some great hitting while on the trip to Belleville Friday and Saturday. He got three safe ones in four chances. In Sunday's game, Stone was in center field and Schweitzer was playing at second. Stone got two additional hits. One of the hits Sunday got fastened in a cloud and went way over left field fence. With a deeper fence the ball would have been good for a home run.

Many of the fans in this city did not know that Scott Hardesty, Newark's crack umpire, ever played ball. Therefore, they were surprised when they learned that he played first base at Belleville and Utica. He played a fast game, getting in on the hit question often enough to keep the opposing pitchers worried. Snodgrass remained in Newark and enjoyed a few days rest.

At Miller, who played in right field at Idlewild park against Zanesville last Wednesday, has agreed to play with Newark for the rest of the season. This move was made necessary on account of the severe injury to Snyder. Justice and McAllister both agree to come to Newark and play in the game against the Pirates this afternoon but it is not known whether they will come.

A clerkman at Yarmouth, England, who was attending a "rumage sale" that was being held for a charity, laid a new straw hat on a stall, and when he turned around to get it a minute or two later found it missing.

There is a tigris in Burma which has a record for man-killing. It is said she has killed over 800 natives. Now she has slain two English engineers and an edict has gone forth that she must be killed.

JAPAN'S RICH PRIZE.Fishing Rights Gained From Russia Worth Millions.*GRANTED BY THE PEACE TREATY

Will Equal In Time, It Is Claimed, the Big Indemnity It Relinquished. Development That Will Probably Be Brought About by the Seafaring Subjects of the Mikado—May Be Close Competitor of United States.

That there are other ways of disabbling a bear than by hobbling his legs appears to be borne out by a careful examination of the peace treaty between Japan and Russia, says the Washington Star. Japan astonished the world by receding from her demand for indemnity, and the work of the Russian plenipotentiaries was hailed as a masterpiece of diplomacy. At the same time, when M. Witte and Baron Rosen signed the treaty at Portsmouth the other day it contained as article 11 the following terms:

"Russia engages herself to make an agreement with Japan giving to Japanese subjects the right to fish in Russian territorial waters in the sea of Japan, the sea of Okhotsk and the Bering sea."

In the treaty also, as a part of article 9, was an agreement on the part of Russia to give Japan right of way in the bay of Tartary—in connection with the cession of the southern part of Sakhalin island. To persons unfamiliar with the resources of the particular part of the Russian territorial waters in the far east mentioned in the treaty there might seem little connection between fishing rights in the three seas named and in the gulf of Tartary, but, as a matter of fact, they mean that in less than fifteen years Japan will have been benefited financially from these rights in an amount that far exceeds the $600,000,000 asked for indemnity, and in addition to this she will have secured an outlet for her fishing fleets that are now practically confined to strictly Japanese waters, having no other territory than that of Japan on which they might land to mend nets, pack their catch, etc.

Officials of the government at Washington who have looked into the matter of Japanese fisheries are reticent in expressing their views in the premises. It was learned, however, from an examination of the map of the ceded fishing territory and comparing the fisheries statistics of Japan with those of Russia and the western coast of America, that Japan will double her revenue from fisheries by her recent transaction. The last year's receipts in Japan from the fisheries amounted in round numbers to $30,000,000.

A glance at the map of eastern Asia shows that Sakhalin, or Saghalien, island is separated from the mainland by the gulf of Tartary and Amur gulf. Sakhalin is north of Yesso, the northernmost of the larger islands included in the Japanese group. A narrow line of small islands of the Japanese empire extends north of Yesso to the Kamchatka peninsula. The sheet of water between this line of islands and the Siberian coast is called the sea of Okhotsk. The gulf of Amur is an arm of this sea. The part of Sakhalin island ceded to Japan by Russia includes that part lying south of the fiftieth parallel. This is half of the island as far as length is concerned, but it is a little less than half its area.

In that part of the gulf of Tartary between Sakhalin and the Siberian coast is said to lie part of the richest fishing grounds in the world. Japanese fishermen have been unable to fish these waters successfully owing to the prohibition against them landing on Russian territory or coming within Russian territorial limits, three miles from the coast.

It is off this tract that the Japanese have received fishing rights. By the permission to fish within the territorial limits of Russia is meant the right to land, mend nets, pack the catch, etc., so that it will now be possible for Japan to use this vast stretch that had previously been closed to her.

The part of Sakhalin which Japan obtains from Russia includes about half of the island that is good for anything. It is said, as far as fishing bases and mining are concerned. But in case the Japanese find it agreeable to fish further along the island's coast the terms of the treaty give them permission to go around it and into the Okhotsk sea, throwing open thousands of square miles of fishing grounds that may be covered with Japanese fleets. It is said that Russia has done practically nothing to develop this part of the resources of her Asiatic territory, and the Japanese have been crowded and jammed together in the confined limits of their old fisheries.

With the throwing open of the new waters by the terms of the peace treaty the fishing industry all along the north coast of Siberia will be developed to its fullest extent. It is said at the United States fish commission that the fishing rights granted Japan by the treaty will make her a very close competitor of the United States in the cod, salmon, herring, whale and seal fisheries and that the waters she has obtained are in every way equal to those controlled by the United States.

It is pointed out that the United States paid Russia an insignificant sum for the seal fishing rights in the Bering sea and that these fisheries are now paying $2,000,000 a year. When Japan asked for the whole of Sakhalin island it was estimated that the increase of territorial waters would give her an increase of $5,000,000 annually from her fisheries, and it is believed that with the addition of the rights secured in Russian territory this increase will be doubled.

Scattering the Yaquis.

City of Mexico, Sept. 18.—General Gonzalez Cosío, minister of war, reports that members of the Yaqui tribe who have been transported from their old homes in Sonora to the hot country, where they have been scattered among the farmers, are doing well, and care has been taken by the war office to see that they are properly paid and treated. The war minister believes that good citizens will be made out of these warlike Indians by the policy which the government is pursuing. By sending them to different parts of the country their dream of setting up an independent government in Sonora dies out.

Social Democrats.

Gena Duchy of Saxe-Weimar, Sept. 18.—The annual congress of the Social Democratic party opened here under the presidency of Paul Singer, who formally welcomed the delegates and delivered an address. The delegates in attendance on the congress include Herr Bebel, the Socialist leader in the reichstag, and Herren Vollmar and Bernstein, Socialist members of the reichstag. Owing to the age and the condition of their health, it is expected that neither Herr Singer nor Herr Bebel will take a prominent part in the proceedings.

Czar on a Cruise.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 18.—Emperor Nicholas, with the empress and their children and Grand Duke Alexis, started on a cruise in Finnish waters. They are expected to return toward the end of the week. Included in the emperor's suite are General Baron Fredericks, aide-de-camp to his majesty, and Admiral Birleff, minister of marine, who declare the cruise is to be simply a pleasure trip.

MISSING DRIVERCharged With Murder of Girl Found Dead in the Bronx.

New York, Sept. 18.—Coroner O'Gorman has issued a warrant for the arrest of Joseph Girard, a driver, charging him with the murder of Augusta Pfeiffer, the 22-year-old girl whose body was found in Pelham road, in the Bronx, Saturday. Coroner O'Gorman said: "We have traced the movements of Girard up to the time of the murder and to within 200 feet of the place. We have also traced the movements of the girl up to 8:30 o'clock on Wednesday night, when she boarded a Throggs Neck car. The two undoubtedly met. The man's clothing has been found in the home of Mrs. Julia B. McMahon of Pelham road, and consists of overalls and jumper. These are smeared with blood. The last seen of Girard was when he left home on Thursday morning at 6 o'clock." The warrant charges Girard with homicide. Edward Harned, a hack driver, and Julia McMahon have been committed to the house of detention as witnesses.

Double Tragedy.

Lowell, Ind., Sept. 18.—Harry Hohman, said to be a son of a wealthy brewer of Hammond, Ind., shot and instantly killed Mrs. Jeanette, nee Ida Taylor, at Cedar Lake, and then committed suicide. It is said that Mrs. Jeanette's refusal to receive his attentions was the cause of the act.

Shanghai, Sept. 18.—The British vice consul, who left here last Friday for Quinsan to insist upon the release of a British subject who was held prisoner there by Chinese authorities, returned with the man.

Fairbanks in Spain.

Powell; Mayor Holtzman, Governor Hauly and Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks, in automobiles. After the laying of the cornerstone addresses were made by Grand Chancellor Powell, Mayor Holtzman, Governor Hanly and Vice President Fairbanks.

Cuban Liberals Demonstrate.

Havana, Sept. 18.—There was a great demonstration of Liberals here, the principal feature of which was a torchlight procession headed by General Jose Miguel Gomez, the Liberal candidate for the presidency. There were 5,000 persons in line and the number of spectators was estimated at 100,000. Numerous excursion parties were run from interior points. Though serious trouble was feared by the authorities, there was not the slightest disorder.

Prosperous Season.

City of Mexico, Sept. 18.—Yucatan advises that the demand from the United States for henequen fiber is greater than the supply. Many plantations are being established and the acreage of the old ones extended. Henequen planters propose forming a society for promoting trade interests. Yucatan is at present in an exceptionally prosperous condition, and money is abundant for all local enterprises. Vanilla growers in the state of Vera Cruz say their crops will be unusually large this coming year. The picking of beans begins in February.

Losses at Baku.

ECZEMA ITCHES AND BURNS

The return of warm weather means a return of torture to Eczema sufferers. The blood is charged with burning acids and acid matter which is forced to the surface through the pores and glands, forming pustules which discharge sticky fluid, and the itching is intense.

The doctors said I had pustular Eczema, it would break out in small white pustules, mostly on my face and hands, discharging a sticky fluid; crusts would form and drop off, leaving the skin red and inflamed. I was tormented with the itching and burning characteristic of the disease for five years, and during the time used various medicated soaps, ointments and washes, but these applications seemed to make me worse. After taking S. S. S. a short time I began to improve; the itching did not worry me so much. I continued the medicine, and soon all the ugly eruptions disappeared and my skin is now as clear as anybody's. I have not been troubled with any breaking out since. Urbanda, O. E. E. KENZEL

Sometimes the disease is in the dry form, and bran-like scales form on the skin, but the cause is the same—humors in the blood. Salves, cooling washes, powders and the like can do nothing more than relieve the itching, because they do not reach the acid-laden blood, the seat of the trouble. S. S. S. cures Eczema and all skin diseases by neutralizing the acids and carrying them off through the proper channels. When S. S. S. has done this the symptoms pass away, the blood is cooled and the disease is cured permanently. Nothing acts so promptly or surely in skin diseases as S. S. S., and it at the same time acts as a tonic to the entire system. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice without charge.

CORRESPONDING MEMBERS.
John Matthews, London, England;

O.; Emily Downer Cole, Columbus, O.; Prof. Arthur L. Judson, Granville, O. The society decided to publish a history of Granville Centennial week with all the addresses, events, etc., and to take steps to preserve intact all the historical articles.

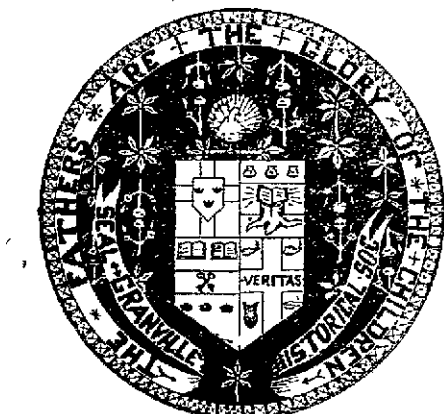

A vote of thanks was tendered the press for their excellent reports of the centennial, and especially to Miss Clara McDonald, who so ably represented the Newark Advocate.

The actual purposes of the society are as follows:

To collect, preserve and disseminate the history of Granville, and of the county of Licking, and the genealogy and heraldry of persons and families now or formerly located therein.

To collect and preserve ancient relics of every description, pertinent to the history of the above named township and county.

To provide for the publication of papers relating to the history, genealogy, heraldry and the general antiquities, arts, crafts, and monuments of the above named township and county.

THE LARGEST CHECKERBOARD IN THE WORLD.
The largest checkerboard ever put into actual use is in the Wellington public park at Greenock, Scotland. The board is eight feet square, and the checkers, which are made of iron, weigh sixteen pounds each. They are moved on the board by means of iron rods. A game played on this unique board is not only an exercise of skill, but is also a trial of physical strength.

GOVERNOR HERRICK BESTOWS COMPLIMENTS ON MINISTERS

(From Governor Herrick's speech delivered in Cleveland Aug. 26, as it appeared in the Cleveland World, his personal organ.)

"For a year and a half I have taken violent abuse silently and with scarcely any comment. I have taken this abuse from those who should have remembered that vengeance is an attribute belonging only to God. I have taken this abuse from those who above all others should have remembered the doctrine of the lowly Nazarene. I take it you will not listen to those who are drawing salaries for simply larking beneath the cloak of religion."

HATER

Of Women is Dargan, Who is Hunted by Texas Officers for Alleged Embezzlement.

Evansville, Ind., Sept. 18.—Chief of Police George L. Covey of this city, has received word from Dallas, Texas, to be on the lookout for W. J. Dargan, aged 37, who, it is said, is wanted in that city on the charge of embezzlement and for whom there is a reward of $200 offered.

Dargan, who is said to have relatives in this city, is a most peculiar man, according to the description of him sent out by the Dallas officials. He has an abhorrence of women and generally lounges about a small European hotel seeking the companionship of bachelors. He will not allow a maid to enter his room nor will he be served his meals other than by a male waiter. Another peculiarity he has is in meeting women on the street. It is said he will not look at a woman on the street and generally when he sees several women coming down the street he crosses the other side of the thoroughfare.

It is said Dargan had a large sum of money on his person when he left Dallas. The local authorities will have no trouble in identifying him should he come here.

RIVERS RAGING

In Western Missouri as a Result of the Heavy Rains—Railway Traffic Interrupted.

Kansas City, Sept. 18.—Heavy rains still continue in western Missouri, forcing up streams and causing much damage to railroads and other property. Carrollton is experiencing the worst flood since 1888. At that place several inches of water has fallen in the last 24 hours, and 11 inches since Thursday. Wakenda creek is on the rampage and Carrollton is cut off from the Wabash depot except by boats; all residents in the lowlands are moving out, and the Standard oil works, the city waterworks and the electric light plants had to shut down. The water is rising at the rate of four inches an hour. The damage to crops in the Wakenda and Turkey creek bottoms is already heavy. Six inches of rain has fallen at Marshall, and the Salt Fork river, near that city, is more than a mile wide. The Missouri Pacific tracks are flooded for a considerable distance and much of the track has been washed away.

A Missouri Pacific steel bridge 130 feet long, over the Lamine river, went out, and traffic on the eastern division of the main line will be impeded for a day or so. Missouri Pacific trains from Kansas City were sent north over the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad, but on reaching the Lamine bridge, near Clifton, the tracks on the latter road were found to be four feet under water. The trains were sent back to Kansas City.

SECRETARY TAFT

Sails for 'Frisco on Steamer Korea
Found No Trace of Anti-Foreign Feeling in Japan.

Yokohama, Sept. 18.—Secretary of War Taft and party sailed for San Francisco on the steamer Korea, amid Japanese enthusiasm. Secretary Taft was given a reception at the American consulate by local merchants. Before sailing Secretary Taft said he thought that reports of the Japanese anti-peace demonstrations had been greatly exaggerated in America. He and his party had traveled all through Japan and had found no trace of any anti-foreign or anti-American feeling. While a prominent American party had been involved in a Tokyo mob, he thought it was because the party happened to be caught in the mob and not because they were Americans. Other churches beside American had been burned. There was a special reason in each case, but no general anti-foreign feeling was responsible.

It is reported that a decree will be issued by the Empress Dowager in the new year granting China a parliament twelve years hence.

A correspondent of the London Mail says that "No English need apply" is quite a common addendum to advertisements in Canada.

BINGHAMTON MAN IN LUCK.

"Jones of Binghamton" was in town last night, not he who "pays" the freight, but John C. Jones, as he registered at the Warden hotel.

For a few hours Jones was sad and despondent, and was not afraid to tell his troubles. Later in the day he was the happiest stranger within our gates, when he came up to the clerk of the Warden and whispered, "I found em; got 'em down at J. W. Collins & Son. Now I can eat a good dinner and look forward to smoking a Wadsworth Bros. 'Chico' afterwards. J. W. Collins & Son says they have not had the 'Chicos' in stock very long, but they are already making lots of friends."

"Strange how homesick it makes a man to lean over a cigar case, and not see a brand that he ever had before. That was the way I felt all day, but when I went into J. W. Collins & Son's and saw my old friend, the Wadsworth Bros. 'Chico,' I knew there was a good smoke coming to your trunk. It only costs 5 cents, but there is no fog. Clear that is as good, and I have smoked most of them." S 11-18-25

Plaintiff asks judgment in the three causes of action in the sum of $150, with interest on $86 from April 10, 1893, and interest on $18.20 from June 16, 1895, and interest on $46.25 from Oct. 2, 1897, and for all other relief the nature of the action may afford. CONSTITUTION,

First Ship of the American Navy, Is Fast Breaking Up.

Boston, Sept. 18.—The ancient frigate Constitution, familiarly known as "the first ship of the American navy," which has for years been one of the most valued possessions of the Charleston navy yard, is in danger of "turning turtle," and it is learned that the good ship can't last many years in its present state. The frigate is leaking badly and the hold fills so rapidly that it is necessary to use a pump frequently. One of the attaches of the yard said that the officials did not care to risk placing the ship in drydock to make repairs, as the vessel would crush with its own weight.

It is estimated that 6,000,000 persons have visited Coney Island during the present season.

WAITING

To See Who Gets the Children Before
He Finishes Dramatizing the Taggart Trial.

Wooster, O., Sept. 18.—The Taggart case is to be dramatized. A stranger, who has been in the city from the time the first witness was called in the Taggart divorce, has dramatized many novels and built plays to order. He admits that his object in coming here was to secure the material for a "military romantic melo-drama." Asked if he could not have performed his work just as well by reading the evidence he said he could not; that he found it better to be on the ground so as to secure local color and be present at climaxes, several of which had occurred in his presence, and which he would, of course, elaborate on and use in the play. He said that while he had fixed the characters in his mind he had written but little, owing to the fact that he wanted to see who got the children. The actress to assume the part of Mrs. Taggart, he says, has also been chosen, and bears a very marked resemblance to the defendant. There will be no less than 18 speaking parts, several military characters, a Kentucky Judge, negro, and Filipino servants, pretty girls galore looking for husbands among the officers at the post. The first scenes are laid in Chicago, Ft. Thomas (Kentucky), Cuba, the Philippines, San Francisco, Ft. Leavenworth and the court house in this city.

DOUBLE LYNCHING

As Result of Clash in South Is Likely
If the Bynum Brothers Are Taken Alive.

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 18.—Sheriff Monteverde this morning sent several deputies with fifty rifles to Germantown, the scene of the race riots Saturday night and Sunday morning. A big posse is now after the negroes, who defied a small posse yesterday morning and stated that they would not be taken alive. The riot occurred at an amateur race track across the Wolf river from Germantown, near Memphis, where the negroes held Saturday's race meets. One officer was probably fatally wounded and another slightly, while one negro was killed and several hurt.

Germantown, Tenn., Sept. 18.—As a result of the clash between Constable Scott, assisted by several other white men, and a crowd of negroes at the Wolf River race track, in which a negro was killed, Scott and a deputy wounded and three negroes shot, Abe Bynum, the colored proprietor of the race track, and his brother John are concealed in a canebrake, around which has been thrown a posse of white men. Two attempts were made to arrest the Bynum brothers, and after several fruitless attempts the party retired to Germantown to await reinforcements. Abe Bynum received a wound on the head, but was only slightly hurt. Excitement is running high and a lynching is looked for if the Bynum brothers are taken alive.

SCHOONER BURNS

Two Members of Crew Drowned
While Attempting to Leave Burning Vessel in Boat.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Sept. 18.—The schooner V. H. Ketchum, bound from Duluth to Cleveland, burned off Parisian Island, Lake Superior. Two members of the crew were drowned while attempting to leave the burning vessel in a boat. As soon as the fire was discovered the schooner was immediately headed for shore and was beached in 23 feet of water off the island, where she was burned to the water's edge. When it was seen that the fire was beyond control the members of the crew, including Mrs. B. Ames, the cook, launched the lifeboat and prepared to row to the steamer Nottingham which had taken the Ketchum in tow. In attempting to lower the woman into the lifeboat the craft was capsized. Mate Anderson went to the rescue of Mrs. Ames as she was sinking for the last time. In the high sea running the two sank before the other members of the crew could offer assistance. The Ketchum was owned by the Seether Transportation company of Cleveland and was valued at $12,000.

Lovesick Lad Suicides.

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 18.—Relatives with whom he had lived in this city admitted that John S. Green, the 16-year-old boy who committed suicide at Rocher's hotel, New York, took his life because of the hopelessness of his love for a lady considerably his senior who lives at Sparrow's Point, near this city. He is said to have assigned this reason for his act in the letter received by his sister.

Gettysburg, Pa., Sept. 18.—The national encampment of the Sons of Veterans is on here. On every regular train entering the city great crowds from all over the country are arriving. The hotels are crowded and the streets are packed with veterans.

London, Sept. 18.—The Shanghai correspondent of the Morning Post says that an imperial decree has been issued ordering many of the ports in Manchuria to be opened equally to all treaty powers.

ENEMIES

Of Catholics Engaged in a Systematic Desecration of Cemeteries in Wisconsin.

Peshigo, Wis., Sept. 18.—Microscopically, evidently the same ones that desecrated the Catholic cemeteries at Oconto, Oconto Falls and Oconto Junction, Stiles and Pearl, in Oconto county, entered the cemetery here and, with a hammer or some heavy implement, destroyed tombstones to the value of over $500. The damage was not discovered until this morning, and the Peshigo police have failed thus far to find any clue to the guilty parties. The stones destroyed were the most beautiful in the cemetery.

The peculiar phase of the affair is that it is only Catholic cemeteries which have been visited, and that only tombstones marked with crosses destroyed. It is believed among the Catholics that the work is the plot of some anti-Catholic secret society.

Marinette is believed to be the next on the list. The marauders began in the southwest part of Oconto county, and from night to night worked northeast, taking two weeks for the visiting of six cemeteries. All of the cemeteries are in the old lumbering district of the state, largely settled by French Catholics. The police of neighboring cities and villages are now watching for further depredations.

TABBIES

Were Guests at the Japanese Tea to Provide a Home for Stray Cats.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 18.—Kittens and cats attended a Japanese tea. Not that they strolled in accidentally, neither were they fleeing from bricks propelled by vicious urchins. No wide-mouthed dogs were on their track. They came by invitation. They wore their glossiest coats and came with their whiskers waxed, and they behaved in a most decorous manner. They ate ice cream and pink cake out of Haviland china and did not know that they were not human. Their hostesses were the members of the Cat club, who are planning a "home" for them. The Japanese tea was given to raise money for it. Anybody attended who would donate 25 cents or more. The home of Mrs. B. F. Bellows, 176 Lucerne street, was the scene of the festivities.

GRAFT IN JAPAN.

Several Naval Paymasters Embezzle Government Funds.

Tokyo, Sept. 18.—The information has been made public that three naval paymasters have embezzled $165,000 of government funds. The announcement has been calmly received by the public, but the knowledge that the commission of the crime extended over the period of a year without discovery may, it is said, cause a feeling of distrust and uneasiness toward the naval administration, and furnish a weapon to the political parties that are opposing the government.

A TRULY IDEAL WIFE

HER HUSBAND'S BEST HELPER

Vigorous Health is the Great Source of the Power to Inspire and Encourage—All Women Should Seek It.

One of the most noted, successful and richest men of this century, in a recent article, has said: "Whatever I am and whatever success I have attained in this world I owe all to my wife. From the day I first knew her she has been an inspiration, and the greatest help-mate of my life."

Mrs. Bessie Ainsley

To be such a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, to inspire him to make the most of himself, should be a woman's constant study.

If a woman finds that her energies are flagging, that she gets easily tired, dark shadows appear under her eyes, she has backache, headaches, bearing-down pains, nervousness, whites, irregularities or the blues, she should start at once to build up her system by a tonic with specific powers, such as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Following we publish by request a letter from a young wife:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham: "Ever since my child was born I have suffered, as I hope few women ever have, with inflammation, female weakness, bearing-down pains, backache and wretched headaches. It affected my stomach so I could not enjoy my meals, and half my time was spent in bed."

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman, and I feel so grateful that I am glad to write and tell you of my marvelous recovery. It brought me health, new life and vitality."—Mrs. Bessie Ainsley, 611 South 10th Street, Tacoma, Wash.

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Ainsley it will do for every sick and ailing woman.

If you have symptoms you don't understand write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free and always helpful.

ASSAULTED BY A HIGHWAYMAN

MR. HARRY LEWIS UNCONSCIOUS FROM TERRIFIC BLOW ON THE HEAD.

Was Returning Home Saturday Night - When Attacked by Unknown Man. Had No Money at the Time.

A bold assault and holdup took place in this city about 9 o'clock Saturday evening. Harry Lewis, a well-known cement worker, while on his way to his home near the corner of Tenth and Selby streets, in the northwestern part of the city, noticed that some one was following him. Lewis had been down street to get some money that was due from a contractor but failed to obtain it, which the footpad following him, evidently did not know. Lewis went into Fulk's grocery to purchase some groceries and saw the fellow standing across the street. When Lewis started to go home the fellow still followed him and just as he reached the corner of Selby street the fellow asked Lewis where Eleventh street was. As Lewis turned to answer him the fellow hit him a terrific blow on the head with a club, knocking him down and rendering him unconscious. It is supposed that Lewis remained in that condition for about half an hour, when he was found lying on the pavement by Lee Quinn and his wife. They went across the street and got Mr. Wade, a boiler maker, and carried the injured man to his home. Dr. Shiner was sent for and in about two and a half hours Lewis regained consciousness. His injuries although quite painful are not considered serious. The robber failed to get any booty as Lewis had not drawn his money. The robber is described as being a heavy set man, wearing a dark suit of clothes and a soft hat.

The members of the board of directors of the Licking County Agricultural society have generously agreed to admit all school children in Licking county to the big fair on Thursday of fair week. (Children's day), free of charge, and teachers are urged to send in their applications for tickets to J. F. Farmer, secretary, Newark, at once, stating number desired. If they fail to secure tickets it will be their own fault. 9-16-21aw2t

CONFIRMS SALE OF TRACTION LINES

S. REED ANTHONY SAYS U. G. CO. HAS BOUGHT CENTRAL OHIO ROADS.

Tucker-Anthony People Still Own and Will Retain Northern Ohio Traction Properties.

The statement made several weeks ago in the Advocate that the Tucker-Anthony people had sold the controlling interests in the Columbus, Buckeye Lake and Newark and Columbus, Newark and Zanesville Traction companies to the United Gas Improvement company of Philadelphia, or as it is more commonly known, the Widener-Elkins-Dolan syndicate, and that the latter has acquired practical control of the Appleyard properties by picking up the bonds of these bankrupt roads, is confirmed by a statement from S. Reed Anthony of Boston.

Mr. Anthony says: "The United Gas Improvement company's connections operated by the Widener-Elkins people are the potent factors in Southern Ohio traction affairs. Acquiring as they recently have the Columbus, Buckeye Lake and Newark, the Columbus, Newark and Zanesville and through the ownership of the bonds the Appleyard properties, these with their other holdings, gives them a vast property."

"We still own and shall retain our Northern Ohio traction properties, are independent of any combine and shall continue to remain so. We shall build other lines when we find communities that will support them. The steam road control bugaboo need not bother any Ohio man. The Philadelphia people have no steam road connections nor have we. The future of tractions is good. I do not believe that the tractions will embark in the general freight business to any great extent. Light packages and the carrying of orders for local merchants will be a big factor in the future and new cars will be equipped for light express business. Ohio is a great traction field if properly handled and to my mind it will only be a short time until the entire state will be a network of electric railways. It is too big a proposition for the steam roads to gobble up. I believe that before long the time will come when Ohio traction interests will be under one general directive policy pursued along independent lines."

THIGH BROKEN

By Fall From Second Story Window in Rear of Maholm's Grocery.

The police were called to the rear of Maholm's grocery Saturday night where John McCreary, a Granville township farmer, was found dead drunk. He was taken to the city prison where he spent the night. It was discovered after the man sobered up, that he was badly hurt and a call was sent for a surgeon. An investigation revealed the fact that his hip was broken. He claims that he fell from the second story window.

After giving his injuries the proper attention, he was removed to his home west of the city.

For Double Barreled Opening Next Saturday Are About Completed. Low Railway Fares Granted.

Columbus, O., Sept. 18.—The arrangements for the double-barreled opening at Newark and Bellefontaine next Saturday are about completed. At Newark Judge Samuel M. Hunter will preside. At Bellefontaine the honor will fall to Judge Duncan Dow, known to fame because of his authorship of the liquor license law bearing his name. The speakers at the Bellefontaine opening will be Herrick, Poraker and Fairbanks. Three of the state candidates will speak at Newark—Pattison, Houck and Rice. In addition there will be addresses by such of the candidates for the Governorship in the past as will be present. It is expected that Thomas E. Powell and Tom L. Johnson will be on hand. John W. Bookwalter, Lawrence T. Neal and Horace L. Chapman have already sent their regrets to the committee.

The local committees in each town are striving hard to make the opening meetings successful in point of numbers. The Central Passenger Association granted a rate for a round trip for one fare and 25 cents extra from any point in the state to Newark or Bellefontaine. They will be good going Friday and returning Sunday, a most unusual concession from the railroads.

MICHIGAN TRAGEDY.

McBain, Mich., Sept. 18.—A triple shooting occurred near Modersville, yesterday. Two men are dead and one is wounded. Henry Knight and Mrs. F. Ogden eloped last spring. Last week they returned and yesterday met Ogden. Words followed and Knight shot Ogden dead. At the same time Mrs. Ogden was struck in the head. M. Roper, father of the woman, then shot Knight twice, killing him.

A Berlin landlord has not only sued a tenant for loss sustained through her excessive use of water for bathing purposes but has promulgated the extraordinary theory that no respectable woman takes a bath every day.
